MOTTO: "Our Handclasp of Friendship Shall Endure"

The Sixth Annual Council of The Continental Society Daughters of Indian Wars was held in Atlanta, GA at the Buckhead Wyndham Garden Hotel on the week-end of Sept. 9 - 11, 1994. All Officers and Chairmen reported Saturday at the Council and the Officers for the term of 1994 - 1996 were elected. At the Banquet on Saturday evening, the drawing for the Indian Print that was donated by Bledsoe's

Art Co. of California was held. Mrs. Robert G. Herr of Long Beach, CA was the winner. A moving installation of the new Officers was given by Mrs. Lawrence Avery, Founder and Honorary Governor General. Sunday was our outing to Red Top Mountain about 30 miles north of Atlanta. A wreath was placed at the grave of Young Deer. We then visited the Etowa Mounds and the Museum located south of Cartersville, GA.
